

The Rebecca “Cookie” Jordan Memorial Scholarship

The Parrish Foundations board of directors upon Cookie’s passing, voted unanimously to establish an annual Memorial Scholarship in Cookie’s name, to be awarded to a local deserving student(s), attending one of the “PARRISH” area schools in zip code 34219.

The Cookie Jordan Memorial Scholarship will be awarded to a student that demonstrates volunteer and leadership qualities within both their respective school and in the community, consistent with the traits demonstrated by Cookie Jordan during her lifetime.

ELIGIBILITY:

1. Student resident of 34219 zip code.
2. Student attending a minimum of one completed school year, in a public or private school in the Parrish community.
3. Submission of a minimum of two reference letters:
 - (A) from a teacher, principal and or school staff member.
 - (B) from a community organization representative
4. Completion of the attached published scholarship form.
5. A committee made up of Parrish Foundation board members will review all scholarship submissions received before the November 30th deadline. Any submissions received after the deadline will not be reviewed. The committee will collaborate on selecting an annual recipient and notify that student of the award.
6. Application enrollment is October 1st, through November 30th. All applications received during this time period will be reviewed and an award for that year’s scholarship will be announced by the schools Christmas break.
